

Wilderness Camp

Session Dates:

Fee: $230

Grades 3-5: July 31-Aug 4

Times: Mon-Wed 9:00am-4:00pm, Thurs/Fri Overnight Noon-10:00am

Drop-off & Pick-up: Shady Rest Park, by the ball fields.

Details: Jump into wilderness on this 5-day adventure. We'll get out each day on a hike and spend our time learning Leave No Trace principles, building shelters, reading maps, and soaking in the wonderful environment of the Eastern Sierra. We'll spend the last day putting our skills to the test, hiking into Red's Meadow, and spending the night at Pumice Flat. This is the perfect segue into our middle school backpacking camp.

Requirements: Stellar attitude and eager to hike!

Must Bring: Backpack, 2 quarts water, snacks, lunch, sunscreen, warm layer! Overnight packing list will be provided.

Sample Itinerary: (subject to change/weather dependent)

Monday: Meet your counselors and head out into the John Muir Wilderness.

Tuesday: Work on your map skills while hiking in the Lakes Basin.

Wednesday: Hike to an alpine lake and learn about Leave No Trace Principles.

Thursday/Friday: Arrive at noon and begin the hike into Red's Meadow. We'll spend the night and be ready for pick-up at 10:00am the next morning.
